7 UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
8 NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
9 SAN FRANCISCO DIVISION
10

11 In Re Case No. 19-30088-DM
12 PG&E CORPORATION, (Chapter 11)
13 Debtor.
14 _____/

15 OBJECTION TO SUBPOENA TO PRODUCE DOCUMENTS, INFORMATION,
16 OR OBJECTS OR TO PERMIT INSPECTION OF PREMISES IN A
BANKRUPTCY CASE (OR ADVERSARY PROCEEDING)

17 Creditor Aztrack Construction Corporation ("Aztrack") hereby objects to the 18 Subpoena to Produce Documents, Information, or Objects or to Permit Inspection of 19 Premises in a Bankruptcy Case (or Adversary Proceeding) (the "Subpoena") issued by 20 Bridget S. McCabe, counsel for the Official Committee of Tort Claimants (the 21 "Committee") on January 21, 2020, in the above-captioned case of PG&E Corporation
22 (the "Debtor") as follows:

23 Background Information

24 1. Aztrack provides repair services for the Debtor's power lines that are 25 located in areas where access is very difficult.

26 2. The Subpoena, a true and correct copy of which is attached hereto as 27 Exhibit A and, by this reference, is incorporated herein, was served on Aztrack on 28

OBJECTION TO SUBPOENA TO PRODUCE DOCUMENTS, INFORMATION, OR OBJECTS
OR TO PERMIT INSPECTION OF PREMISES IN A
BANKRUPTCY CASE (OR ADVERSARY PROCEEDING) - Page 1

1 Thursday, January 23, 2020. It calls for the production of a plethora of documents and
2 information at 1:00 p.m. on Tuesday, February 4, 2020, eleven calendar days after the
3 Subpoena was served on Aztrack. The requested documents and information seek, among
4 other things, to identify Aztrack's insurers.

5 3. On Monday, January 27, 2020, counsel for Aztrack emailed attorney
6 McCabe and requested that she identify the contested matter for which the Subpoena was 7 issued. A true and correct copy of this email is attached hereto as Exhibit B and, by this
8 reference, is incorporated herein.

9 4. On Wednesday, January 29, 2020, counsel for Aztrack received a
10 responsive email from attorney McCabe. A true and correct copy of attorney McCabe's
11 email is attached hereto as Exhibit C and, by this reference, is incorporated herein.
12 Attorney McCabe identified the plan-confirmation proceeding as the "contested
13 proceeding" under which the Subpoena was served.

14 5. Counsel for Aztrack has reviewed the docket for the Debtor's case through 15 January 21, 2020, the date of the Subpoena. It found a plan filed by the Committee and
16 another entity on October 17, 2019 (Docket No. 4257), for which the Committee
17 withdrew as plan proponent on December 19, 2019 (Docket No. 5177), and it found a
18 plan filed by the Debtor and thereafter amended three times, the most recent of which
19 was filed on December 12, 2019 (Docket No. 5101). Counsel for Aztrack did not find
20 any objections to either of these plans in the docket for the Debtor's case, nor did it find
21 any disclosure statements for these plans, let alone orders approving disclosure
22 statements and setting deadlines for filing objections to the plans.

23 6. Aztrack is informed and believes the Committee and the Debtor have
24 reached agreement that (1) tort creditors will be paid $13.5 billion under the Debtor's
25 plan, (2) the Committee will support only the Debtor's plan, and (3) any recovery by tort 26 creditors from other parties will have no effect on the payment of $13.5 billion from the 27 Debtor under the Debtor's plan.

OBJECTION TO SUBPOENA TO PRODUCE DOCUMENTS, INFORMATION, OR OBJECTS

Objections to Subpoena

1. The Subpoena is improper because there is presently no contested matter relating to reorganization plans in the Debtor's case. Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9016 incorporates Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45. Rule 45(a)(2) authorizes a subpoena to be issued from the court where the "action" is pending. "Action" is defined in Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9002 to mean "an adversary proceeding or, when appropriate, a contested petition, or proceedings to vacate an order for relief or to determine any other contested matter." Here, the Committee asserts the "contested proceeding" from which the Subpoena was issued is the plan-confirmation proceeding. This is wrong, because Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 3020(b)(1) requires there to be an objection to confirmation before the plan-confirmation proceeding becomes a contested matter governed by Rule 9014.

2. The Subpoena imposes an undue burden on Aztrack. The document and information request in the Subpoena is very broad, asking for production of detailed documents relating to Aztrack's business activities with the Debtor dating back to 2013 and Aztrack's insurance policies in effect during this time period. Especially in light of the Committee's agreement with the Debtor regarding the provision in the Debtor's plan for tort claimants (i.e., payment of $13.5 billion to tort claimants, payment not dependent upon or affected in any manner by tort claimants' recoveries from other parties), the Subpoena is simply not relevant to any potential future objections to the Debtor's plan. Should there be a future contested matter from which the items requested in the Subpoena would be relevant, any requirement for Aztrack to produce documents and information should provide Aztrack with sufficient time to gather the responsive non-privileged information and documents and should be conditioned upon Aztrack receiving reasonable compensation for the production, including without limitation reasonable attorney's fees.

3. The Subpoena is also objectionable to the extent that it would require

1 Aztrack to produce documents privileged from production, such as documents within the
2 ambit of attorney-client privilege.

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45(c), (d), (e), and (g) (Effective 12/1/13)
(made applicable in bankruptcy cases by Rule 9016, Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure)

(c) Place of compliance.

(1) For a Trial, Hearing, or Deposition. A subpoena may command a person to attend a trial, hearing, or deposition only as follows:

- (A) within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; or
- (B) within the state where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person, if the person
 - (i) is a party or a party's officer; or
 - (ii) is commanded to attend a trial and would not incur substantial expense.

(2) For Other Discovery. A subpoena may command:

- (A) production of documents, or electronically stored information, or things at a place within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; and
- (B) inspection of premises, at the premises to be inspected.

(d) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena; Enforcement.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The court for the district where compliance is required must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction — which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees — on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises — or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

(i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the court for the district where compliance is required for an order compelling production or inspection.

(ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the court for the district where compliance is required must quash or modify a subpoena that:

- (i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;
- (ii) requires a person to comply beyond the geographical limits specified in Rule 45(c);
- (iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or
- (iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the court for the district where compliance is required may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

- (i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(d)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

- (i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and
- (ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(e) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

- (i) expressly make the claim; and
- (ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information under seal to the court for the district where compliance is required for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(g) Contempt. The court for the district where compliance is required — and also, after a motion is transferred, the issuing court — may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena or an order related to it.

For access to subpoena materials, see Fed. R. Civ. P. 45(a) Committee Note (2013)
